1
P: Pharmacist                      M: Man
P: Can I help you?
M: Yes. Have you got 1. _____ for a headache?
P: We've got aspirin or paracetamol.
M: Er...paracetamol, please.
P: A large or a small bottle?
M: How big are they?
P: 50 tablets or 100 tablets.
M: A small bottle then, please. And how many can I take?
P: You can take two every four hours, if you 2. _____ to. It's on the side of the bottle.
M: Fine. Do I pay here?
P: No. If you could take it to the 3. _____ desk over there, please...

2                      P: Pharmacist      W: Woman      D: Her daughter
W: Do you have anything for sunburn – something to put on the skin? My daughter's burnt her arms and 4. _____ quite badly.
P: I see. Could I have a look at her arms?
W: Yes. Show the lady, Sophie.
P: Um, yes, it is quite bad, isn't it?
D: Mm.
P: Well, I give you some cream for burns, but there's not really much we can do now. The most important thing is to keep it 5. _____ up if you go out into the sun again.
W: Yes, of course.
P: And in future, remember to use a good sunscreen lotion. She's got very fair skin.
W: Yes, she was very silly. And which cream do you 6. _____?
P: This one's very good. You can use it as often as you want.
W: Right, we'll take that one then. Thank you very much.

3                      P: Pharmacist      W: Woman
W: Erm... 7. _____ me.
P: Yes?
W: Er... Do you have anything for, er... diarrhoea?
P: Is it for an 8. _____?
W: Er, yes. For my husband, actually.
P: I see. And how bad is it?
W: Well, quite bad, actually. Yes... all night.
P: Any 9. _____?
W: No, no. Just the...er...you know...
P: I see. Well, I can give you this. A spoonful of this medicine three times a day should help to stop the diarrhoea.
W: Thanks.
P: But if it's very bad I think he should see a doctor.
W: Oh, we don't know a doctor here.
P: Well, there's a phone number up there by the 10. _____, can you see? Really I think that's the best thing.
W: Yes, I see. Well, where can I pay for the medicine...?
