Change the sentences so that the word in bold print becomes the subject of the sentence.

- a. Salivary glands in the mouth produce enzymes.
- b. Digestive juices 'attack' the bolus in the stomach.
- c. In the small intestine, pancreatic juices and bile dissolve undigested fat.
- d. The chyme then enters the large intestine which removes water from it.
- e. Ultimately, peristalsis expels faeces from the body.
- f. The constipated patient managed to empty his bowels.
- g. We do not allow dogs to run around our hospital.
- h. They explained the procedure to the patient in great detail.
- i. The nurses are not doing enough to stop the spread of the infection.
- j. We have not treated enough people with this new drug to understand its effects.
- k. We will clean the toilet floors every single day from now on.
- Rewrite these sentences using the Passive.

EXAMPLE

- 1 Lymphocytes make antibodies.
- 2 Tomorrow we will follow the disinfection schedule.
- 3 We have cancelled all operations because of an MRSA outbreak.
- 4 Antibiotics have improved his condition.
- 5 The epidemic will probably kill millions.

Passive modals

EXAMPLE

This rule has to be followed at all times.

These instruments should not be sterilized at temperatures higher than 160 °C.

Use of gloves glove must not be considered a sulfine.

Use of gloves alone $\underline{must\ not\ be\ considered}$ a substitute for hand washing.

- 1 The nurse on duty must write the report.
- 2 You have to limit the growth of micro-organisms.
- 3 Someone should clean the soap dispensers every day.
- 4 We must all use alcohol hand-rub between patient contacts.
- 5 Staff must never use common towels they are vectors for disease.

Rewrite the sentences starting with the suggested words as subjects.

Someone is looking after the patient with gastritis. The patient
Someone shot at the policemen. The policemen
The nurse took his blood sample. His blood sample
They made Jane write the test again. Jane
They asked the doctors to work 12-hour shifts. The doctors
CIA men invited Martin to see their headquarters. Martin
A car hit the drunk when he was crossing the street. The drunk

The causative have/get...