What are the northern Virginia suburbs like?

Of what nature are the wounds in the man's head?

Do they dissect every internal organ at the Northern Virginia District Office?

What's the single most unpleasant thing about frequently dissecting the dead?

What's actually Cathy's job, apart from performing autopsies as a medical examiner?

How many bullets caused the man's death?

How many times was the weapon fired, according to the witnesses?

Was the man murdered or did he commit suicide? Why do you think so?