

Unit 3

1. Translate the following phrases into Latin and inflect them:

a clean glass	a new method	a broken finger	a right kidney vitrum purum	methodus nova	digitus fractus	nephros dexter vitri puri	methodi novae	digiti fracti	nephri dextri vitrum purum	methodum novam	digitum fractum	nephron dextrum vitro puro	metodo nova	digito fracto	nephro dextro vitra pura	methodi novae	digiti fracti	nephri dextri vitrorum purorum	methodorum novarum	digitorum fractorum	nephrorum dextrorum vitra pura	methodos novas	digitos fractos	nephros dextros vitris puris	methodis novis	digitis fractis	nephris dextris

2. Find Latin equivalents for Greek names of colours:

leukos	albus, a, um	poikilos	versicolor, ris chloros	viridis, e	erythros	ruber, bra, brum

3. Connect the given preposition with words in the correct case:

propter fissuram congenitam palati sub signo viri cum extracto chamomillae prope humerum dextrum et ulnam sinistram in nucleo cellulae in ophthalmone sanum ante therapiam chirurgicam fracturae tali sine ictero neonati

4. Find mistakes in following phrases:

alvus longa
virus validum dorsum linguae
haemorrhagia cerebri ruptura palati duri traumatica oculi rubri (no -e- in the adjective) fractura cranii complicata medicamenta/um pro neonatis

5. Fill in missing letters of words denoting different parts of an upper extremity:

humerus
ulna radius carpus antebrachium
digitus