

Eye conditions

Z. Rozkydal

Foreign object in the eye

Signs

Blurred vision

Pain or discomfort

Redness and watering from the eye

Spasm of the eyelids

First aid

Hold her eye open, separate her lids by thumb and fingers

Examine every part of the eye

Elevate the lashes of the upper lid, eversion of the upper lid

Try to lift the object off with a moist swab

Wash it with clean water or sterile fluid or eyewash

Pour the water from the inner corner

Ask the casualty to blink under water

Do not remove anything what sticks or penetrates the eyeball

Sterile dressing, medical care

Eye wound

Direct blow by sharp objects

Signs

Sharp pain in the affected eye

Visible wound or bleeding area

Leakage of blood or clear fluid from the eye

Partial or total loss of vision

First aid

Hold the head as still as possible

Sterile dressing

Do not attempt to remove anything what is embedded or stuck

Medical care

Contusion of the eye

Bleeding into the eye

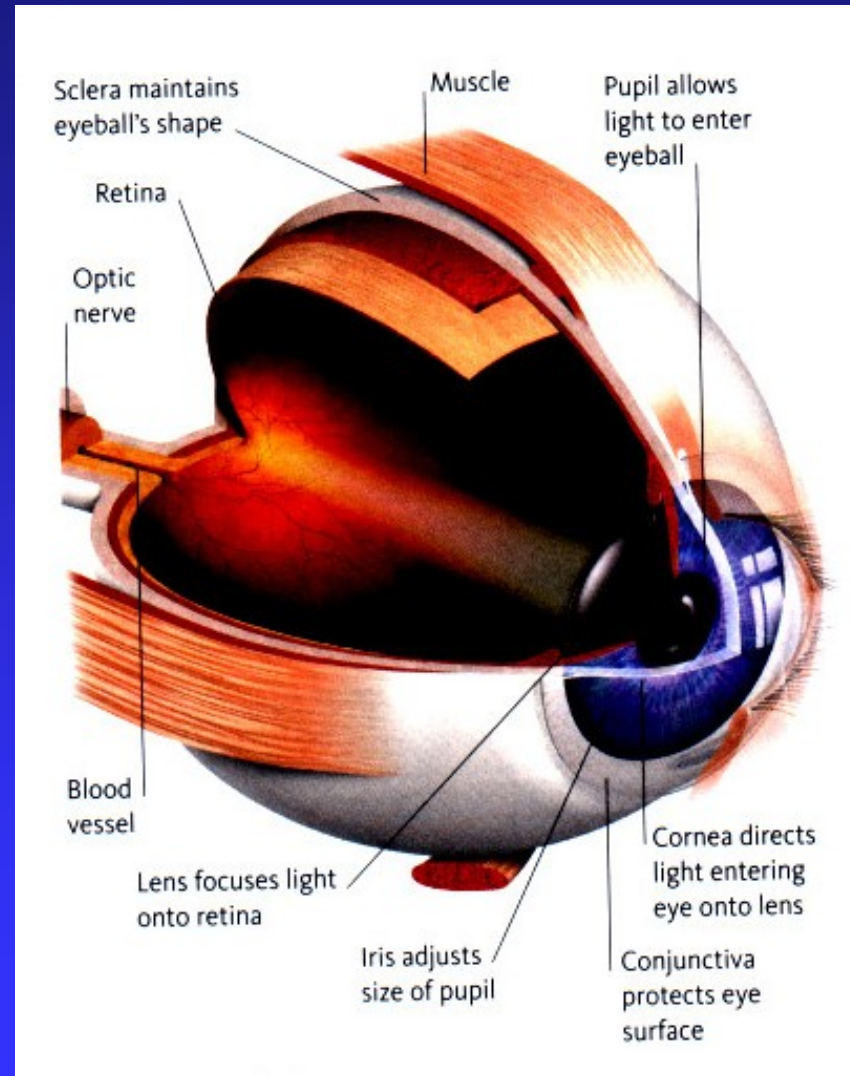

Damage of the structures of the eye

Dislocation of the lens

First aid

Sterile dressing

Alleviate the pain

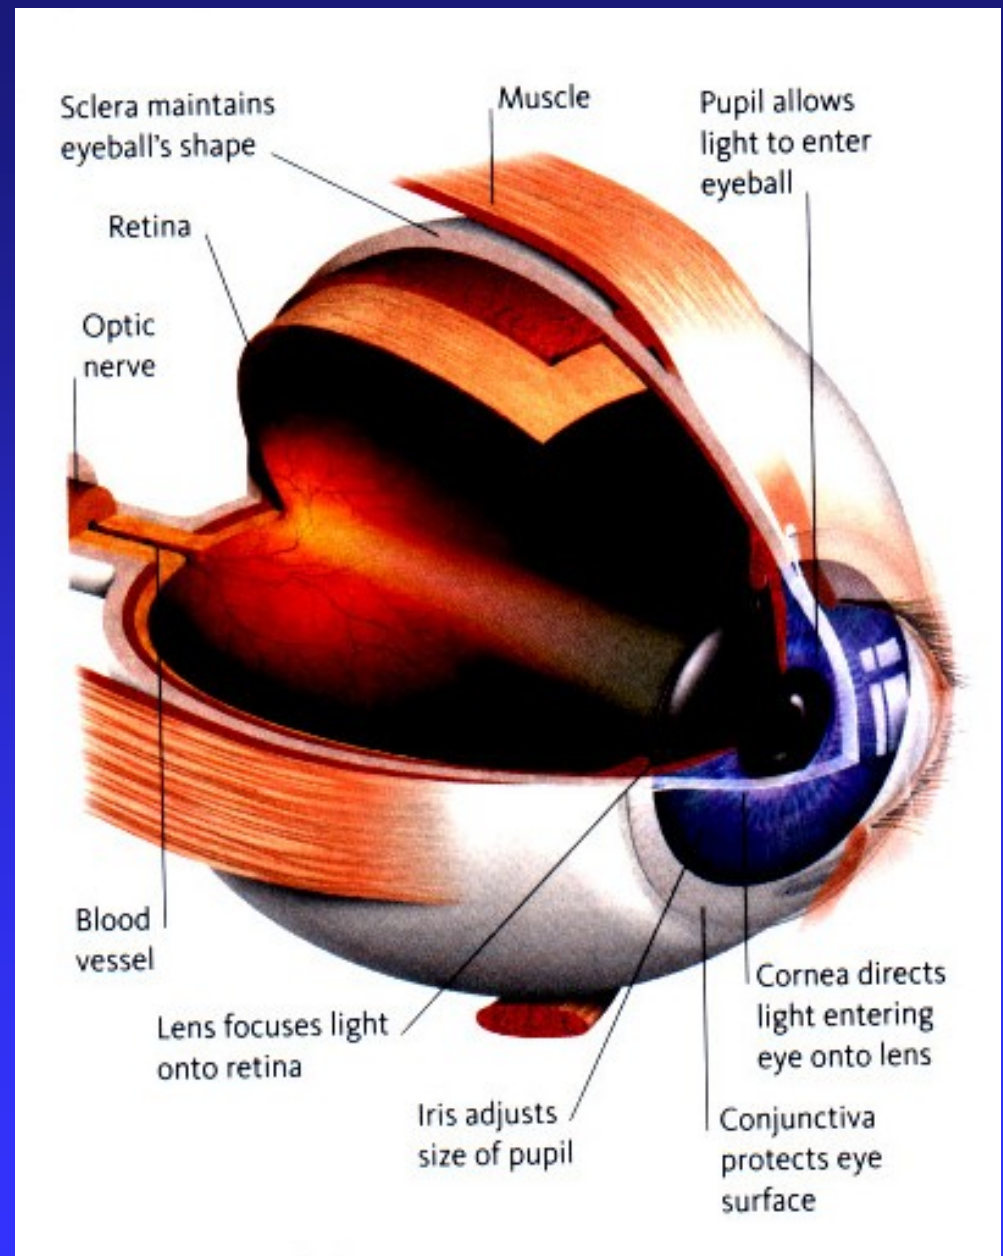

Burns of the eye

First aid

To rinse the eye with pure
or sterile eyewash

Sterile dressing

Conjunctivitis acuta

Signs

Sharp pain of the eye, watering from the eyes, headache

First aid

Ophthalmo-septonex drops

Ophthalmo-framycoin drops

Sterile dressing

Amotio retinae

Loosening of the retina

Signs

Sudden loss of vision, blurred vision

No pain

First aid

To keep the casualty still

Transport to hospital

Trombosis or embolia of a. centralis retinae

Trombosis of v. centralis retinae

Signs

Loss of vision on the affected eye, no pain

First aid

To keep the casualty still

Transport to the hospital

Acute glaucoma

High pressure in the eye, 40-70 mm Hg

Signs

Impaired vision, complete loss of vision

Sudden onset of severe headache

Nausea, vomiting

First aid

To keep the patient still

Transport to the hospital

