

abbreviations

l.sin/l.dx.

fr.

disloc. - dislocatio

susp. – suspicio/suspectus,a,um

ca. - carcinoma

Change the number:

Extractio dentis permanentis – extractiones dentium permanentium

Plexus brachialis – plexus brachiales

Os breve – ossa brevia

Ruptura ossis temporalis – rupturae ossium temporalium

Cum vulnere sclopetario gravi – cum vulneribus sclopetariis gravibus

Luxationes genuum – luxatio genus cum faciebus dorsalibus digitorum – cum facie dorsali digiti glandula sublingualis - glandulae sublinguales processus transversus vertebrae – processus transversi vertebrarum

Translate:

Frequent pulse in acute fever

Pulsus frequens in febris acuta

Dorsal network of right foot and right hand rete dorsale pedis dextri et manus dextrae

Hidden symptoms of malignant tumor symptomata latentia tumoris maligni latens, latent – is – hidden

Dorsal branch of ulnar nerve – ramus dorsalis nervi ulnaris

Rabies because of animal's bite

Rabies propter morsum animalis

Septum of frontal sinuses

Septum sinuum frontium

With cirrhosis of the liver cum cirrhosi hepatis

Swellings of extremities because of diabetes mellitus

Oedemata extremitatum propter diabetam mellitum

For the internal use

Ad usum internum/ pro usu interno

Bleeding of a cut wound

Haemorrhagia vulneris secti

Simple ophthalmic ointment

Unguentum ophthalmicum simplex

Injury of the face

Vulnus faciei

Make terms:

fractura (pl.) – os (pl.) – extremitas – dexter exitus – letalis – propter – sepsis – post – vulnus – punctus – in – regio – abdominalis post – thrombosis – vena – cava – inferior haemorrhagia – ventriculus – post – trauma – gravis resectio – lobus – hepar – sinister – propter – tumor – benignus

Change to proper forms after given prepositions:

decubitus in (regio sacralis)

trauma cum (dolor acer) propter (bronchitis acuta)

in (decursus morbi)