

1. Fill in the missing endings and translate:

propter diabet__ melit__ post fractur__ cost__ ver__ terti__ propter fissur__ palat__ congenit__ sine effect__ mal__ therapi__ chirurgic__ fractur__ fibul__ et tibi__ complicat__ status post extraction__ dent__ molar__ propter cari__ dent__

2. Form the plural and translate:

fractura digiti

morbus chronicus

ligamentum latum

remedium compositum

musculus profundus

labium pallidum

caries profunda

genu varum

3. Connect with the preposition of your choice and translate:

status acutus

processus longus

facies pallida

vulnus periculosum

excortatio genus

abscessus subcutaneus

4. Translate, underline all nouns:

a bruise running along the lower part of the jaw on the right side of the face

The large vessels of the neck on both sides

Abrasion on head of proximal phalanx of ring finger womb, upper part of vagina, greater part of bladder, and part of the belly wall below the angle of the right jaw abrasions on left cheek under left ear cuts made between the thighs and labium on both sides

The left calf had a long incision several abrasions on the back of left hand Pericardium was open in the abdominal cavity breast (was) by the right foot

The liver (was placed) between the feet bladder (was) healthy

The left kidney and the major part of the uterus