In the sentence He sees the woman, "he" is the subject of the sentence, while in The woman sees him, "him" is the object. In English the two uses are distinguished by different forms of the pronoun: he/him. If, however, instead of a pronoun, we use a noun, English does not make such distinction in the form of the word. Thus, we use the same word "man" in both The man sees the woman and The woman sees the man. In Czech language, however, different forms of the word are used not only for pronouns, but for nouns and adjectives too.

Thus, whenever you have an english verb that could be followed by the object (wherever you use "him"), accusative must be used in Czech language.
