how to study czech online

Czech Language for Foreigners III

- The main aim of the course Czech for Foreigners ?
discussion

Studying online: software

- MS Teams - logging in with your ID (UČO) and primary password
- do not use your personal account

Studying online: hardware

- Internet connection 😊
- camera: have it always on
- microphone: have it muted, ready to turn it on when asked or having a question

Studying online: working with sources

- interactive syllabus
- learning materials
- MS Teams platform

Interactive syllabus

- <https://is.muni.cz/auth/el/med/podzim2020/aVLCJ0383/index.qwarp>

- general info section (available all the time)
- special chapter for each week (opens every Monday)
- list of all the tutorials (updated weekly)
 - those to be studied for next week will in specific week chapter
 - those for revising only in tutorial list
- list of all the homeworks

Interactive syllabus: week work

- explanation / Q&A (from week 2 based on video tutorials)
- following list of different tasks
 - book/PDF/handout based tasks, ROPOTs, online exercises, working/speaking in smaller groups, quizzes...
- homework

class materials

Studying online: the class (technical)

- be logged in on time
- have your camera on
- have your microphone muted
- if you have a question, raise your hand or write the question into the chat

Studying online: the class (mental)

- participate
- be active in completing the tasks
- do not worry to ask any question

Studying at home: homework

- completing the homework → reducing the passmark for the final test
- but also other benefits (like, actually, learning something useful)

Studying at home: translations

- use the book dictionaries (PDF on IS) for vocabulary in the exercises

- if you use the (PDF) dictionaries, do not look for the exact form you do not understand; look for the most similar form → studovat (to study) could also look like: studuju (I study), studuješ (you study)...

- use any online dictionaries for isolated words

- try not to use google translator

- do not use „camera“ translators

Studying in Czech republic

- use the language everytime you can
- it boosts your skills
- it makes your learning easier

Getting the credit

- attend the classes (you can miss 2 of them without proper excuse)
 - substitutions: ask the teacher of the group you want to substitute with
- pass the final test: passmark 70 %
- final test passmark can be reduced by:
 - passing the progress tests 1 written tests: if passed, will reduce your final test passmark by 2 %
 - 1 oral test: if passed, it will reduce your final test passmark by 3 %
 - 1 project: if passed, it will reduce your final test passmark by 3 %
 - completing homeworks: if you complete over 90 % of the assigned homework, your final test passmark will be reduced by 2 %

Motivation

- credit 📷
- being able to speak with czech patients later during clinical subjects
- making your brain work a different way, thus training it
- meeting interesting people & seeing interesting places
- eating better food & drinking more interesting drinks
- having better life
