

1. Word functions

Going from English to Latin: TYPE - FUNCTION - CASE

Type of word	Preposition?	Function in a sentence		Case noun	---	subject		nominative of	attribute	non-agreed attribute	genitive other		prepositional phrase	accusative / ablative adjective	---		agreed attribute	(no pre-assigned case, will copy its noun)

* English noun without a preposition might still be a non-agreed attribute and genitive in Latin, if another noun follows it (head injury = injury of the head; hip fracture = fracture of the hip).

Going from Latin to English: CASE - TYPE - FUNCTION

Case	Type of word	Function in a sentence nominative	noun	subject
	adjective	agreed attribute genitive	noun	non-agreed attribute („of“)
	adjective	agreed attribute
accusative	noun	prepositional phrase
	adjective	agreed attribute
ablative	noun	prepositional phrase
	adjective	agreed attribute