Seminar 8B – Tasks / Worksheet 8

I. Questions

- 1. The reflexive pronouns have two uses. Which ones? Give examples in sentences.
- 2. Explain the difference in meaning between the following sentences:
  - a) She poured herself a glass of wine.
  - b) She poured her a glass of wine.
  - c) Paul told John to look at him.
  - d) Paul told John to look at himself.
- 3. Which reflexive pronoun is 'indefinite' and when can we use it?
- 4. Give examples of the following verbs in sentences and explain whether we use reflexive pronouns with them:
  - a) a reflexive verb
  - b) semi-reflexive verb
  - c) nonreflexive verb (can take a reflexive pronoun, but doesn't have to)
- 5. Do we need to use reflexive pronouns with the verb 'enjoy'?
- 6. Choose the right pronouns:
  - a) I don't have any money on me / myself.
  - b) She was sitting by her / herself. (=on her own)
  - c) I was sitting by her / herself.
  - d) He was beside him / himself with rage.
  - e) She looked about her / herself.
  - f) She looked after her / herself.
- 7. Which of the following sentences illustrate the emphatic use of the reflexive pronouns? What's the meaning of the reflexive pronouns? Can we change their position within the sentence in this use?
  - a) John himself told me about the meeting.
  - b) Carol dressed herself and put on some make up.
  - c) I myself would never do it.
  - d) Did you talk to the manager himself?
- 8. Explain the difference between the following sentences:
  - a) Mary and Jane stood in front of the mirror and looked at themselves.
  - b) Mary and Jane looked at each other.

- 9. Explain the two main uses of possessive pronouns, give examples in sentences.
- 10. We can modify the possessive pronouns using only one word. Which one? Give a few examples in sentences.
- 11. Explain the difference between restrictive and nonresrictive relative clauses see the examples. Could we use other relative pronouns in them?
  - a) My house, which I bought last year, has got a lovely garden.
  - b) Is that the woman who you met at the concert?
- 12. Which of the following sentences are wrong? Correct them.
  - a) The man who wants to buy our car phoned yesterday.
  - b) The man that we saw running from the bank was a robber.
  - c) The woman with whom he came to the party was his cousin.
  - d) The girl about that he told me the other day was waiting for him in front of the school.
  - e) The students which don't pass the test will have to take it again.

In which of these sentences can we leave out the relative pronouns?

- 13. Consider the following sentences and explain how we use the interrogative pronouns.
  - a) What director do you like best?
  - b) Which director do you like best?
  - c) Who is your favourite actor?
  - d) Which is your favourite actor?
- 14. Demonstrative pronouns do not refer only to time. What else do they refer to? Give examples.
- 15. What's the difference between the following sentences?
  - a) This is my friend Charlie.
  - b) That is my friend Charlie.
  - c) This is how it's done.
  - d) That is how it's done.
- 16. What does 'that' imply in the following sentences?
  - a) Janet is coming. I hope she doesn't bring that husband of hers.
  - b) She's awful, that Mabel.

II. PRACTICE

1.	Fill	t in the correct pronoun – reflexive or objective:
	2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10 11	It's a pity you didn't bring your camera with  Mark talked to the woman sitting next to  The old man is no longer able to look after  My mother likes to have all her family near  To be successful in life, you must believe in  In the mirror I saw a lorry behind  Mike didn't have any money with  Vicky had to force to eat. She knew she had to eat at least something.  Just help to sandwiches, won't you?  Please make at home.  My friend is disabled, but she can dress  Did you have a good holiday? – Well, there wasn't much going on. We had to amuse
	13 14 15	Why has the light gone off? – It switches off automatically.  He didn't recognize the woman standing next to  I'll get the tickets, shall I? – It's OK. I can pay for You don't need to pay for both of us.
2.	Ins	ert appropriate emphatic pronouns:
	<ol> <li>2.</li> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>5.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	The manager welcomed us to the hotel.  The house was small, but the garden was enormous.  Laura didn't buy the pictures. She painted them.  My sister designs all these clothes.  The princess visited the children in hospital.  The song wasn't very good, but the title of it became a popular phrase.  I don't dictate my letters to the secretary. I write them.
3.	Fili	in the pronouns – 'each other' or reflexive:
	<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	They don't meet very often, but they write emails to almost every day. We could all do more to keep healthy. We don't look after properly. The hostess introduced the two guests to  We talk to in French because it's the only language we both know. People who talk to may get strange looks from other people. The guards who shot a gunman claimed that they were defending Luckily we managed to get two seats next to  The two boxers did their best to knock out.
4.	Che	pose the correct pronoun:
	2.	That / this next programme should be interesting.

- 5. This / That must be Andrew over there.
- 6. This / That party isn't much fun, is it? Shall we go home?
- 7. I've lost my key. Well, this / that is a silly thing to do.
- 8. I can't see you on the 3rd of July. I am on holiday this / that week.
- 5. Rephrase the following sentences using the independent possessive pronouns:
  - 1. Do you think it's her money?
  - 2. Are these your tickets?
  - 3. I can't stand her husband.
  - 4. I live with my parents. I don't have my own flat yet.
  - 5. Rachel came to the party with one of her cousins.
  - 6. I borrowed some of your magazines.
  - 7. He doesn't want to share a room with his sister. He would like to have his own room.
  - 8. Harriet introduced me to some of her friends.
- 6. Fill in what or which:

1.	of these photos would you like?
2.	You were at the cinema, weren't you? film did you see?
	phone shall I use, this one or the one in the office?
4.	day is your evening class?
5.	café did you go to? Snoopy's, the Coffee Pot or the Tea Gardens?
6.	number is this building?
7.	musical instrument do you play? The guitar or the piano?
	foreign languages can you speak?
7. Fill in the appropriate relative pronouns:
1.	I don't like people tell jokes all the time.
2.	The bomb went off this morning caused a lot of damage.
3.	The jacket Melanie wore at the party was really nice.
	A safe is a cupboard you keep valuable things in.
	The vase Jake broke was really valuable.
6.	That's the man crashed into my car the other day.
7.	That is the film I was talking about.
8.	This is the magazine young people read.
9.	This is the wallpaper I've decided on.
10.	The footballer took drugs has been banned from playing again.
	Felix Fontain is the journalist article I am supposed to translate.
	Norman Bridge is the lawyer looked after Mary's financial affairs.
13.	These are the people about no one cares.
14.	That is the policy to I am strongly opposed.
15.	The old lady did a parachute jump now wants to swim the English Channel.

Now mark the sentences in which the relative pronouns can be omitted.

16. The man _____ Carol is going to marry is a millionaire.

17. Everything _____ has been discussed is important.

18. That's the best book I have ever read.