

WORKSHEET 2

1. Choose the appropriate word:

1. Neither / None of my parents could be there with me.
2. Come on Tuesday or Thursday. Both / Either day is OK.
3. Every room is / rooms are being used.
4. She spent a great number / deal of time in the Far East.
5. We have enough / much time to finish it.
6. You don't need to buy coffee. We still have little / a little.
7. The police would like to ask him few / a few questions.
8. There's little / a little point in trying to mend it.
9. Fewer / Less people were able to meet the requirements.
10. Each / All passengers had to get off and wait for the police.

2. Fill in any / no / some / none:

1. _____ people believe anything they read in the papers.
2. Would you like _____ coffee?
3. I could get _____ information. There was no one to ask.
4. Is he _____ better this morning? – Unfortunately not.
5. Do you have any new novels in English? – No, we've got _____ at the moment.
6. I'm _____ expert but I think this painting is a fake.
7. He'll need _____ help he can get.
8. Are there any sweets? – No, there are _____.
9. There were _____ 400 demonstrators.
10. Can I have _____ brown rice, please?
11. We got there without _____ trouble.
12. Ask _____ doctor – they'll all tell you that alcohol is a poison.

3. Some of the following sentences contain a mistake, a few are OK. Find and correct the mistakes:

1. Not each house on the island has electricity.
2. As they both worked hard, they all received a bonus.
3. There are roses on either sides of the door.
4. All of us wanted Marilyn's autograph.
5. The three first runners won medals.
6. I waited whole week for him to answer.
7. We were all surprised by his attitude.
8. Neither my brothers can sing.
9. Which pot shall I use? – Every. It doesn't matter which.
10. The boys both were really successful.

11. All they wanted to hear her singing again.
12. She gave me a half of an apple pie.
13. Their all trouble started when they bought that house.
14. Both them phoned to invite me to the party.
15. I didn't like the second half of the film.

4. Put the expressions in brackets in the correct order:

1. _____ jobs were in catering. (John's / both / two / first)
2. _____ days of our holiday were absolutely wonderful. (few / those / last)
3. I need _____ driving lessons before my test. (three / another)
4. _____ rooms are being used at the moment. (other / two / the)
5. The refugees will need _____ of food and clothes. (amount / three times / that)

5. Consider the use of 'all' (either the grammar or its position) in the following sentences. Which ones aren't correct?

1. All students were accepted.
2. All the students were accepted.
3. All of the students were accepted.
4. The students were all accepted.
5. The students all were accepted.
6. All they were accepted.
7. All them were accepted.
8. All of them were accepted.
9. They were all accepted.
10. All were accepted.

6. Consider the following sentences. Are they grammatically correct, acceptable or totally wrong?

1. There isn't any car on the road at the moment.
2. I expect less problems than last week.
3. Neither of us are happy about the situation.
4. One and a half hours are allowed for the exam.
5. She wasn't telling all truth.