TVAR

A dark, atmospheric interior space, possibly a museum or gallery. The scene is dominated by deep shadows and bright, textured wall panels that appear to be made of stone or concrete. Silhouettes of people are visible in the foreground and middle ground, suggesting a public space. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the walls and the forms of the people.

A black and white photograph of a winter scene. The foreground is filled with a dense thicket of bare, thin tree branches and shrubs. In the background, a chain-link fence is visible, and behind it, a building with a gabled roof. The ground is covered with patches of snow. The overall atmosphere is cold and desolate.
