

GENERAL AMERICAN from Meier, P (2010)

CD TRACK 4

SIGNATURE SOUNDS IN SENTENCE CONTEXT

1. The master class for fast dancing was laughably passable. æ Am. raising
2. The least silly sheep seemed to fill the steam ship's feast list. I
3. Far worse and larger were the wars of yore, I heard. r ɜ ɝ
4. The boss's policy tolerated lots of hot dogs at the office. b } ɔ: } open a
5. Laura sought and caught her small awkward daughter. əɪ
6. It's quite high time my tiny quiet lion smiled. oʊ
7. Joan showed the old folks the only slowly grown roses. ʌ e
8. Many memorable feminists assembled Lenny's lemons in the blender. eɪ
9. Eighty whales played lazy games while tailored ladies gaily waited. r
10. City waiters want a better sort of little metal kettle. r ɪ
11. Horror in the mirror! Strange Mary's rotund reflection! rɪ
12. Larry Royle's laws, while clear, are a little subtle. θ
13. Three healthy things they'd rather bother with: thinking, breathing, and bathing. yod
14. Newly tuneful dukes are duly nude on Tuesdays.
15. Fling the kings among the singing, clinging throng!