

Limericks By Edward Lear

By Edward Lear More Edward Lear

There was an Old Man with a beard,
Who said, 'It is just as I feared!
Two Owls and a Hen,
Four Larks and a Wren,
Have all built their nests in my beard!'

There was an Old Man in a boat,
Who said, 'I'm afloat, I'm afloat!'
When they said, 'No! you ain't!'
He was ready to faint,
That unhappy Old Man in a boat.

There was an Old Person of Ems,
Who casually fell in the Thames;
And when he was found
They said he was drowned,
That unlucky Old Person of Ems.

write a limerick about places of articulation

There once was a place of articulation,
It caused quite a bit of sensation,
With sounds sharp and precise,
It made speech sound so nice,
In speech, it deserves high admiration!
