

Urbanization

Word	Definition	Translation
adjacent	next to or near something else.
affordable	cheap enough for ordinary people to afford.
apartment	American for a set of rooms for living in, usually on one floor of a large building. The usual British word is flat.
asylum	the right to stay in a country, given by a government to protect someone who has escaped from war or political trouble in their own country.
block	to stop something from moving through or along something else.
boarded up	with windows or doors covered with wooden boards.
boom	a sudden major increase in trade, profits etc in a particular country or region
bulky	too big to be carried or stored easily.
case study	a piece of research that records details of how a situation develops over a period of time.
chamber of commerce	an organization of people who own shops and businesses in a particular town or city. Their aim is to improve conditions for business in their area.
civil service	a country's government departments and the people who work in them.
combat	to do something to try to stop something bad from happening or a bad situation from becoming worse.
communal	owned or used by everyone in a group, especially a group of people who live in the same building.
congestion	a situation in which a place is crowded with people or vehicles, so that it is difficult to move around.
convert into	to change from one system, use, or method to another, or to make something do this
corporation	a large company or business organization.
council	the elected officials who govern a local area such as a city or county.
decay	to be gradually destroyed as a result of a natural process of change.
demolish	to deliberately destroy a building.
densely	containing a lot of things or people close together.
derelict	something such as a building or piece of land that is derelict is empty, not used, and in a bad condition.
deserted	a deserted place has no people in it.
detached	a detached house is not joined to another house.
deteriorate	to become worse.
disposal	the process of getting rid of something.
dual carriageway	a road with two or more lanes of traffic going in each direction, separated by a piece of land in the middle.
effluent	liquid waste such as sewage or waste from a factory.
electricity	a form of energy that can produce light, heat, and power for machines, computers, televisions etc.
elegant	elegant places and things are attractive because they are beautiful in a simple way.

endanger	to put someone or something into a situation where they might be harmed or damaged.
environment	the place in which people live and work, including all the physical conditions that affect them.
estate	an area where there are many houses, usually built at the same time by the same company. Many estates are owned by local government and have cheap houses for poorer families.
extend	to increase the size of a building or area, especially by adding extra parts onto it.
fringe	the outer edge of something.
galvanize	to shock or affect someone enough to produce a strong and immediate reaction.
Georgian	in a style typical of the UK and the US in the 18th century.
ghetto	an area in a city or town where people of a particular type live, usually in poor conditions.
graffiti	words or pictures drawn on walls in public places.
high-density	having a high number of people or things in an area
high-rent	costing a lot of money to rent.
high-rise	a high-rise building is very tall with many floors or levels.
homeless	without a place to live.
industrial estate	an area of land where industrial companies have their buildings.
landlord	a man who owns a house, flat, or room that people can rent.
leisure	activities that you do to relax or enjoy yourself.
let	to rent a room flat, house etc to someone.
location	the place or position where someone or something is or where something happens.
low-density	having a low number of people or things in an area.
maintenance	work that is done to keep something such as a building, machine, or piece of equipment repaired and in good condition.
makeshift	made using whatever is available and therefore not very good.
neglect	to fail to look after a place, for example a house or garden.
neighbourhood	a particular area of a city or town.
obsolete	no longer used because of being replaced by something newer and more effective.
packed	extremely crowded.
pedestrian	someone who is walking, especially in a town or city, instead of driving or riding.
poverty	a situation in which someone does not have enough money to pay for their basic needs
preserve	to take care of a place or building in order to prevent it from being harmed or destroyed.
prosperity	the situation of being successful and having a lot of money.
recreational facilities	places provided for people to do sports or other leisure activities.

