Analysis

39-46 points: You may think you are brave but you are really reckless! In fact, it's surprising you're still alive if this is how you would act!

28-38 points: You are brave but fairly sensible. However, you'd better be careful you don't get into trouble by doing dangerous things.

20-27 points: You are sensible and cautious but perhaps a little bit unadventurous.

13-19 points: You're not brave at all! You should be careful that you don't put yourself and others at risk by acting in a cowardly way.
