

Lesson Plan

Date: 22nd March 2007

The class: 7 b

Students: 18

Level: intermediate

Topic: Used to

Teaching aids: tape/recorder, pictures

Aims:

To guide the students to an understanding of used to + inf. For habits and states

To provide practice so the students can use the structure to talk about themselves.

Model sentences: I used to have long hair (but now I have short hair)

I didn't use to wear glasses.

Personal aim: to improve my board work

Anticipated problems:

The students may be confused with to be used to + ing.

Procedure:

time	content	Organization, method
5 min	1. Show a photo of me as a student. Say Guess who this is? When was this? 2. Give the model pointing to the photo: I used to have long hair. Ask: Is my hair long or short now? 3. Give the model again. Students repeat. 4. Write on board: When I was a student Now Put picture prompts under the headings to elicit these sentences:  I used to drink beer.                      I drink wine. I used to live in a flat.                      I live in a house. I used to wear trousers.                      I wear jeans. I didn't use to wear glasses.                      I wear glasses.	Frontal  Pictures
10 min..	5. Check understanding of the meaning: Do I live in a flat now?                      Ss: No. Did I live in a flat?                      Ss: Yes. ...  ... ... ...	pairs

	Homework: ... Revision of the main items of the lesson.
