

Sir Ken Robinson

Sir Ken Robinson (4 of March 1950- 21 of August 2020)

- He was a British author.
- Speaker.
- International advisor on education.
- Professor in Art education (Univ. of Warwick).
- Expert on education, art, creativity and innovation.
- Director of the Arts in Schools Project around U.K. (1985-1988)

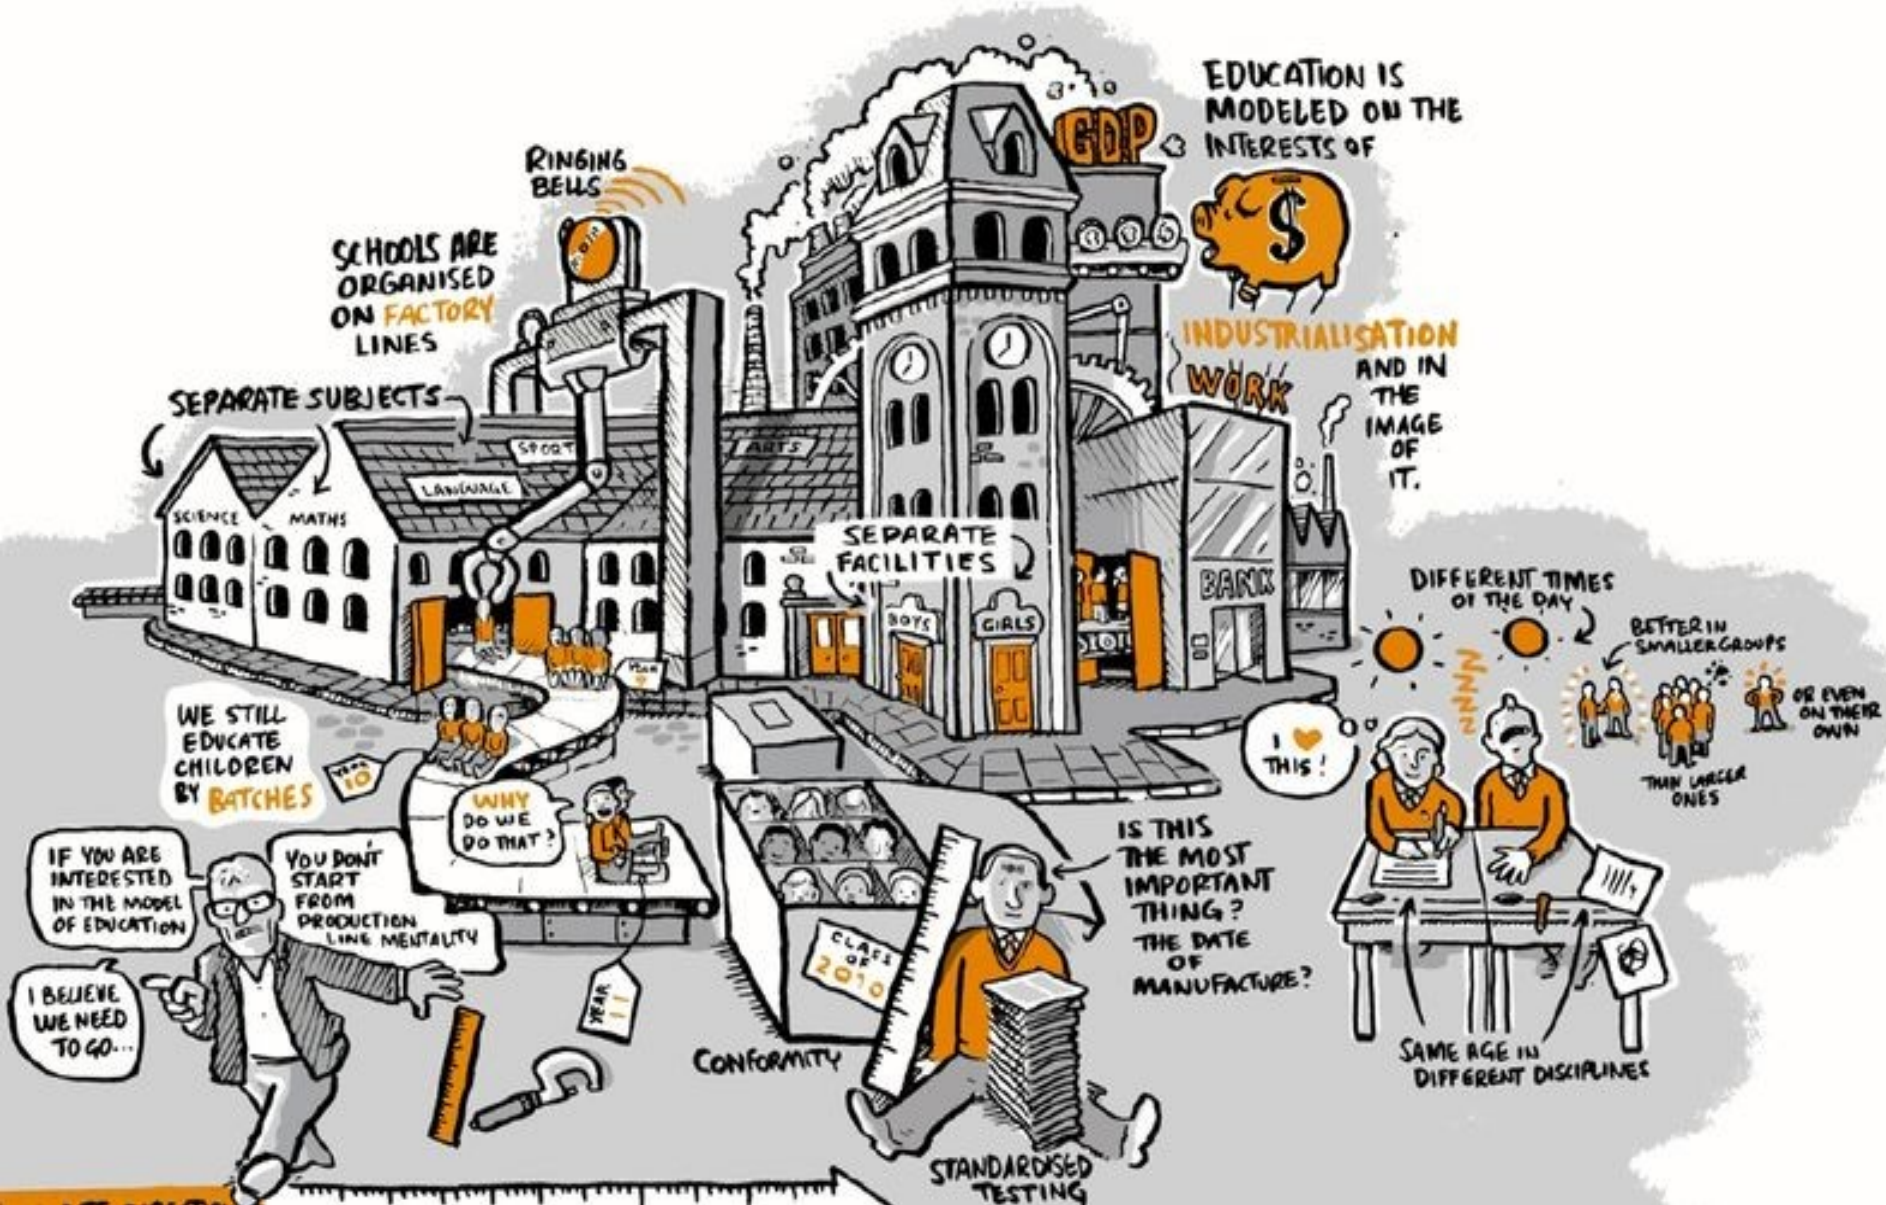

BIOGRAPHY

- He was born in Liverpool, he was one of seven children from a working-class family.
- Robinson contracted polio at the age of four.
- He attended an special school due to his physical effects of polio.
- His studies: Primary, grammar school, University in English and Drama.
- PhD in Drama and Theatre Education.

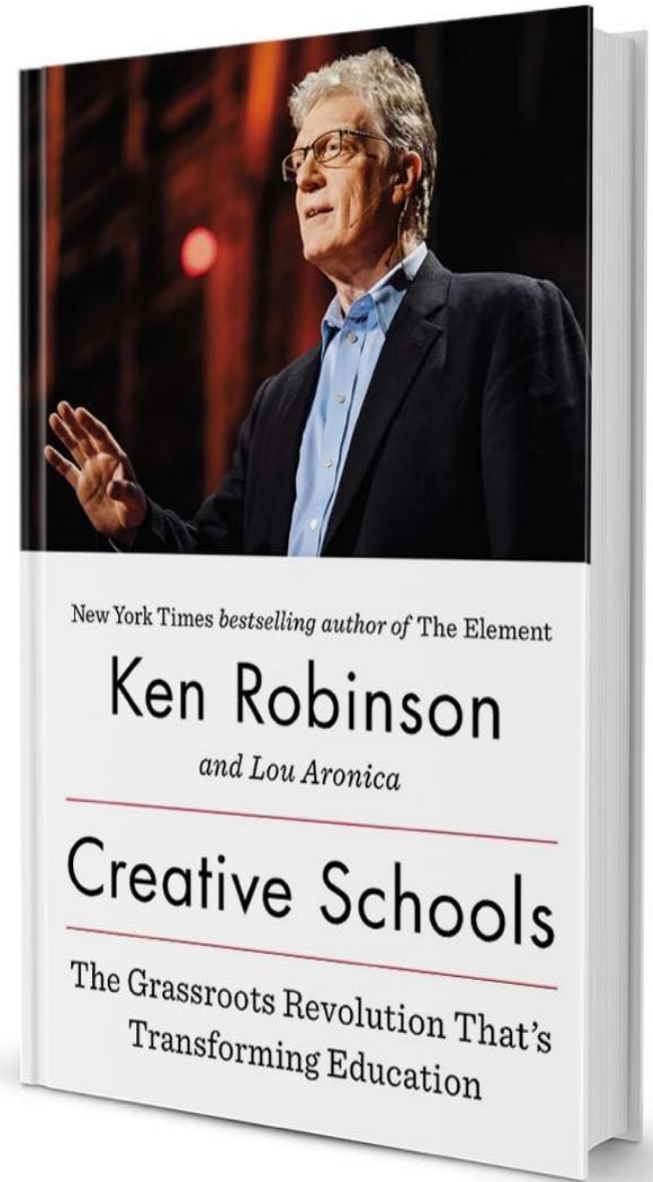

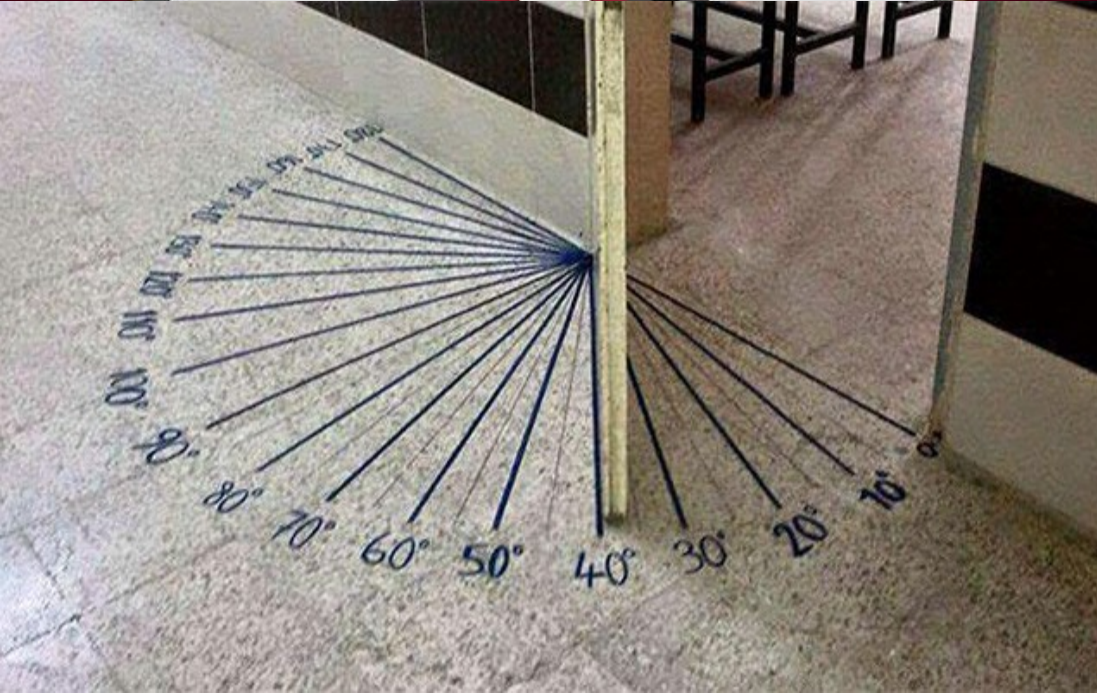

Ideas on education.

- Education has to develop on three fronts.
- DIVERSITY: By offering a broad curriculum and encourage individualisation of the learning process.
- PROMOTE: Curiosity through creativity teaching depending in high quality teacher training and development.
- FOCUS: On creativity through alternatives didactics processes less standardised testing, giving a creative approaches to learning.

Standardized

Creative

Testimony

- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LHJGo_g7Its
- This is an example of individualisation of the learning process.

Equality- Diversity- Inclusion

- Legislation in U.K.
- In U.K. it is illegal to discriminate on the grounds of : Age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, religion or belief, race or gender reassignment.
- Exist many forms of discrimination: Direct, indirect, associative and perception.
- Forms of discrimination: Harassment or bullying.

Examples of discrimination

- <https://youtu.be/C-uyB5I6WnQ>
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2g88Ju6nkcg>
- These are two examples of discrimination.