

Correct the errors below. Each sentence has one or more errors.

1. I would rather study at home, because I need a quiet and cosy atmosphere.

2. When a teacher leads the lesson, but the students get involved, too. I enjoy lessons like this the most.

3. But, what is especially crucial is actually the working space, which has to be completely clean and empty so that I can put all the stuff I need on it.

4. Otherwise, I don't concentrate as well and my mind starts to wander.

5. Turning off my phone notifications also helps me not to get distracted as often.

6. Throughout primary and high school, I never really studied.

7. When the need arises for learning something I do not find appealing, it is significantly more difficult to force myself to do it.

8. It's good to have a laugh now and then but it's also necessary to take things seriously to some extent.

9. I do not mind working in a group, but others do not have to be annoyed by the activity.

10. Because I am being motivated by others to do better results and eventually I want to become even better than them.

11. Studying a few times in the week is also better than just the day before the test.

12. I prefer a comfortable room with enough space, but some people, for example, love studying outdoors/outside.

13. At school, I prefer to listen to the teacher rather than participate in group work.

14. I get most of my work done the night before the exam, and therefore I don't have much of a choice other than to depend solely on artificial light.

15. Having a tidy, cosy study space is just a bonus.

16. I just tend to get lazy start doing something else when I should be studying.