

KEY

Complete the following sentences by deciding which alternative (A, B, C or D) fits into each gap:

1. I rang the door twice. Lucy wasn't at home. Sheleft already.

- a) can't have
- b) must have
- c) needn't have
- d) should have

2. You.....finish your homework now. You can always do it after dinner.

- a) couldn't
- b) mustn't
- c) don't have to
- d) shouldn't

3. Why are you still here? Youbeen helping Dora in the kitchen.

- a) should have
- b) must have
- c) might have
- d) would have

4. Timget into his house because he'd forgotten his keys.

- a) can't
- b) wouldn't
- c) mustn't
- d) couldn't

5. Why lie to her about your condition? Youtell her the truth or things might get worse.

- a) should better
- b) would better
- c) had better
- d) would rather

6. There won't be a bus for ages so wewalk home.

- a) might as well
- b) should as well
- c) would as well
- d) could as well

7. Ihurried because I got there very early.

- a) shouldn't have
- b) 'd better have
- c) can't have
- d) needn't have

8. Why didn't I write the number down? Iwritten it down.

- a) can't have
- b) ought to have
- c) must have
- d) might have

Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first,(using the word given if provided):

1. It was a ridiculous thing to say and obviously she wasn't thinking clearly. can't
She can't have been thinking clearly because it was a ridiculous thing to say.
2. It's possible that Jane looks exhausted because she's working too hard. might
Jane might be working too hard and that's why she looks exhausted.
3. What you're saying isn't right and clearly you've made a mistake.
You must have made a mistake because what you're saying isn't right.
4. It's wrong that you haven't been taking the tablets that the doctor gave you. ought
You ought to have been taking the tablets that the doctor gave you.
5. It was wrong of you to say that.
You shouldn't have said that.
6. I'm sure my friends are wondering what I'm doing.
My friends must be wondering what I'm doing.
7. If I don't go to the bank now, I won't have any money for the weekend. better
I'd better go to the bank now or I won't have any money for the weekend.
8. We've done enough for today so let's stop now. might
We've done enough for today so we might as well stop now.
9. John had the chance to start his own company but he decided not to.
John could have started his own company but he decided not to.