

Form new words with the given meaning from the following expressions!

Example: cerebrum – related to the brain: cerebralis

Cerebrum

related to the brain

small brain

hepar

related to the liver

inflammation of the liver

nephros

inflammation of the kidney non-inflammatory disease of the kidney spina

related to the spine or thorn

full of thorns

provided with thorns

vena

small vein

full of veins

granum

little grain

full of little grains

TASK 6: Using prefixes and suffixes, form new words from the given expressions!

Example: cellula – pertaining to cell: cellularis

– outside the cell: extracellularis

inside the cell

full of cells

cellular inflammation

flecto, flectere, flexi, flexum (= to bend) flexible

flexibility

flexing

muscle performing flexing movements flexing towards the front flexing towards the back nascor, nasci, natus sum related to the act of being born related to the time of birth (= to be born) before the time of birth

after the time of birth

birth rate

caput

related to the head

provided with heads

small head