

About the course

COURSE INFORMATION

Dear students,

All basic materials required for our seminars are available on this site. They have been organized into weeks for you to know when to bring a particular text to the class.

Active participation in classes is required. You are advised to bring your electronic devices to classes, or to print study materials for each week.

2 missed attendances are acceptable.

You can read, study and print materials at your convenience.

Good luck!
