

FAKSIMILE 75

The image shows a facsimile of a musical score from a 15th-century manuscript. It consists of several systems of staves. The top system has a large decorated initial 'B' and the lyrics 'ne di ca mus do'. Below this, there are two more systems of staves, each with a decorated initial 'B' and the lyrics 'no mi no'. The notation is a mix of square notes on a four-line staff and lute tablature (letters on a six-line staff). The manuscript is written in a Gothic script. At the top right of the first system, there is a large, stylized Roman numeral 'CXXXV'. The bottom system ends with a double bar line and a sharp sign.
