

Choose the correct

I drove ten miles further/farther than necessary.

We learnt further/farther that he wasn't a qualified doctor.

(Alex 7.5.4)

Fill in correct form

Hard: Robert works _____ but Jasmine _____ works.

High: You should aim _____ when your boss thinks _____ of you.

(Alex App 15.2)

Make adverbs:

busy

dry

sly

(Alex 7.8.2)

Make adverbs:

She greets me (friendly)

He behaved (silly)

Colin Firth played (heavenly)

He speaks (womanly)

(Alex. 7.12)

What is the difference?

You typed the letter badly.
We badly need a new computer.

You should speak naturally.
Naturally, I will accept the invitation.

(Alex. 7.16.2)

Put the adverbs in the correct order

I went next day/London/train

Barbara read library/all afternoon/quietly

She lives England/Oxfordshire/small house /village

(Alex. 7.19.1)

Is it correct?

Have you already received your invitation?

(Alex. 7.28)

What sounds more positive?

It's quite good./It's fairly good.

Is it possible to say?

He is fairly dead.

He is quite dead.

(Alex. 7.43)

Choose the correct one

We stood around/about waiting.
I wish you'd stop fooling around/about.
He lives somewhere around/about B'ham.
Throw it at/to me so that I can catch it.

(Alex. App 25.1.-11)

Choose the correct one

Who is invited beside/besides us?

Divide it equally between/among you two.

The plane would have landed but/except for the fog.

But for/but you, everyone sent flowers.

Our house is right by/on the river.

Several days went by/past before I had news.

(Alex. App 25.1.-11)

How is it with school?

In school?

At school?

In the school?

Choose the correct one

Our dog was hit by/with a bus.

It won't open by/with a bottle opener.

Our success was due to/owing to luck.

He lost his job due to/owing to bad health.

(Alex. App 25.1.-11)

What's the difference?

Mr. Temple jumped onto the stage.

Mr. Temple jumped on the stage.

We walked into the park.

We walked in the park

And what would be the opposite?

(Alex. 8.9.5)

Fill in the correct preposition

Cement consist _____ sand and lime.
Happiness consists _____ having a cheerful outlook.

(Alex. 8.27.2)