review - practice

Write a review of your choice...

- 100 - 200 words long
- in the discussion forum, so that you can comment on other people's reviews
- include the review in your portfolio

literature review

- a part of scientific papers, including your master / diploma thesis
- traces the intellectual progression in the research field (to date)
- includes major theories or debates or recent / similar studies
- prepares the grounds for your research
- identifies the potential gaps in the research which you intend to fill with your research (partly)
