

Journalism & civic society

Vojtěch Boháč, MUNI, 2024

What is Voxpot

Path towards journalism

- Writing and reading
- Traveling and curiosity
- Kind of luck

Why has it started

- I hate being manipulated
- No media for 21. century in the Czech Republic
- No media to put events in broad context

Basics for a good journalism

- Trying to understand all sides – people are not dumb
- Traveling to the source no matter what
- Cleaning reality from bullshit

Power is always the adversary

- Power corrupts and has to be contained
- Power wants to define narratives and control it (War in Ukraine)
- We are here to shed light and challenge those narratives

Why free media matters

- Well informed people are hard to manipulate
- It enables free civil society to exist
- Free media means free people

Time for discussion

The image features a black background with the text "Time for discussion" in white. At the bottom, there is a horizontal tear in the paper, revealing a white background underneath. The tear is irregular and jagged, running across the width of the image.
