

Eastern Partnership and Human Rights. War in Ukraine

Where we work?

- Eastern Europe and Central Asia
- Latin America
- Northern Africa
- Vietnam

What We Do?

- Activities:
 - Capacity Development
 - Protection
 - Advocacy
- Target Groups:
 - Activists and HRDs
 - Journalists
 - Lawyers

Protection

- Financial assistance to the political prisoners and their families, activists under threat
- Relocations, sustainable work with exiled civil society
- Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS)

Capacity Development

- Trainings
- Internships
- Fellowships
- Financial Support to Third Parties

Advocacy

- International advocacy
- Awareness-raising in the Czech Republic and target countries

Why support human rights abroad?

Human Rights and War in Ukraine

Independent Ukraine in Russia's focus

- Referendum for Independence on December 1st 1991
- Relationship with Russia
- Orange Revolution 2004
- Naval Base in Crimea and Russian gas
- Revolution of Dignity

Human Rights in Ukraine before 2014

- Freedom of speech – censorship, journalists' deaths
- Freedom of Assembly – Ukraine without Kuchma, revolutions
- Discrimination of minorities
- Electoral rights

War in Ukraine and Civil Society

- Protests in Crimea and Donbas
- Participation in the Reforms
- Volunteering
- Assistance to IDPs
- Monitoring of human rights situation on occupied territories

After 24.2.2022

- Staying in the country
- Partisanship
- Draft
- Documentation of human rights violations and war crimes
- War coverage in independent media
- Need of psychosocial support
- Humanitarian aid in the communities

Thank you for your attention

Nadiia Ivanova

nadiia.ivanova@peopleinneed.net

www.peopleinneed.net