The family party was in full swing when the phone rang. Dr Craig answered it. He listened carefully for a moment, then said, "I'll come right away." "Do you have to go out?" his wife asked. "If it is an urgent case, I have to go," Dr Craig answered. "If I (should) should be late, please don't wait up for me." Dr Craig drove into the night. If I don't hurry, he thought, I (might) might be too late. The thought made him drive faster. After driving for an hour, he arrived at a house. All the lights were on. If all the family is up, the doctor thought, the situation (must) must be serious. A woman opened the front door immediately. "Thank God you've come, doctor," she cried. "It's my daughter." A sleepy child of about six appeared in a night-dress. "I told her," her mother said, "'(go) go to bed, or I'll fetch the doctor'." "See," she shouted at the child. "I've done it. Here's the doctor!"

Put in the right conditionals.

Grygori Pilikian recently celebrated his 114th birthday and reporters visited him in his mountain village in Georgia to find out the secret of a long life. "The secret of a long life," Grygori said, "is happiness. If you (be) are happy, you will live a long life." "Are you married?" a reporter asked. "Yes," Grygori replied, "I married my third wife when I was 102. If you are happily married, you (live) (will) live for ever. But for my third wife, I (die) would/should have died (or: might/could have died) years ago." "What about smoking and drinking?" a reporter asked. "Yes, they are important," Grygori said. "Don't smoke at all and you (feel) will feel well. Drink two glasses of wine a day and you (be) will be healthy and happy." "If you (can/live) could live your life again, what (you/do) would you do?" a reporter asked. "I would do what I have done. If I had had more sense, I (eat) would have eaten more yoghurt!" he chuckled. "Supposing you (can/change) could change/could have changed one thing in your life what (you/change) would you change/would you have changed?" another reporter asked. "Not much," Grygori replied. "So you don't have any regrets?" "Yes, I have one regret," Grygori replied. "If I (know) had known I was going to live so long, I (look after) would have looked after myself better!"
