

FAKSIMILE 75

The image shows a facsimile of a musical score from a 15th-century manuscript. It consists of several systems of staves. The top system is marked with a large Roman numeral 'CXXXV'. The notation is a mix of square notes on a four-line staff and lute tablature (letters and numbers on a six-line staff). The lyrics 'ne di ca mus do' are written below the first system, and 'no mi no' below the second. The third system shows 'ne di ca mus do' and 'mi no'. The fourth system shows 'ne di ca mus do' and 'o mi no'. The notation is dense and characteristic of early printed music.
