Professions and Careers

Quotes about Work

- 1 “Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life.” – Confucius (551-479 BC), Chinese philosopher.
- 2 “Don't sacrifice* your life to work and ideals. The most important things in life are human relations.”
– Katharine Susannah Prichard (1883-1969), Australian author and co-founder of the Communist Party of Australia.
- 3 “Let us realize that the privilege to work is a gift, that power to work is a blessing, that love of work is success.” –
David O. McKay (1873-1970), American 20th century educator.
- 4 “If you don't want to work, you have to work to earn enough money so that you won't have to work.”
– Ogden Nash (1902-1971), American poet.
- 5 “The more I want to get something done, the less I call it work.” – Richard Bach (b.1936), 20th century American author of Jonathan Livingston Seagull.

Discussion Questions

- 1 How do people look for jobs?
- 2 How do employers seek* staff? What is a potential employer most interested in knowing?
- 3 Do you consider some jobs only for men and others for women? Which ones? Why?
- 4 Why are women discriminated against when seeking employment?
- 5 Do those in high level management positions deserve their high salaries? What ratio* is acceptable between the lowest paid employee and the highest?
- 6 Do you prefer working as a team or individually?
- 7 What is your opinion on mid-life retraining for employees who are made redundant* through company “restructuring”?
- 8 Have you ever benefited* from career counselling in secondary school or later in your career?
- 9 What do you think about the shortened work week?
- 10 More people are working in (multiple) part-time positions. Who benefits from part-time work?

Jobs, Skills and Qualities

Task 1 – Choose one of these places and make a list of the different jobs that people do there.

University

Theatre

Newspaper

What are some of the most important skills and qualities you would need for a particular job?

Skills

computer typing driving telephone *interpersonal artistic language mathematical managerial financial analytical problem solving

Qualities

patient / tolerant *diligent / hard-working optimistic
tactful / polite intelligent *caring / thoughtful calm quick-thinking / resourceful honest / reliable well-organised persistent goal-oriented / determined

*punctual / precise co-operative *conscientious innovative strong / fit flexible energetic / enthusiastic responsible imaginative / creative detail-oriented motivated assertive

Can you think of any opposite qualities to those above? Can they be expressed with a positive word?
Example: calm x energetic (not nervous – this is too negative)

Listening – Coherence and Transition

Task 2 – The following paragraphs have been taken from a presentation. Put them into logical order.

1: 2: 3: 4: 5: 6: 7: 8: 9: 10: 11:

- A. _____ For instance, in agriculture they worked just under seventy hours at the beginning of the twentieth century, compared to sixty hours in industry. What is interesting is that at the end of the nineteenth century the highest paid workers worked substantially fewer hours than the lowest paid, a situation that was gradually redressed* over most of the twentieth century and has now almost completely been reversed.*
- B. _____ we'll be looking at some startling* predictions, some made in the 1930s and others more recently.
- C. _____ the situation for industry. In 1900, people were working an average sixty-hour week, which fell quite rapidly down to fifty by about 1920. It then went down steadily, but not quite so rapidly, to forty-five hours over the next twenty years.
- D. _____ Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, if I may have your attention, please? Thank you very much for coming along today. My name's Nathan Morse and I'm going to be outlining some research we've been doing at the University of Arkansas on the working week in twentieth-century America.
- E. _____ to summarize, the idea that we will have more and more leisure time seems to be in total contradiction* to today's working hours. In fact, more and more skilled workers and professionals are finding ways to keep themselves at work rather than at home.
- F. _____ The Second World War meant that industry was working overtime, so there was a sharp rise in the number of working hours during the war years, reaching a peak of about fifty-five hours in 1943, before dropping rapidly back to forty-five in 1947. Between 1947 to 1970 there was a gradual decline toward a forty-hour week.
- G. _____ I'm going to show you how the general trend has not always been to work less and less.
- H. _____ let's look at how many hours people were working last century. Data on the annual average workweek tends to vary* enormously, one reason being that it depends on whether we are talking about agriculture or industry.
- I. _____ thank you very much for your attention, and if you have any questions perhaps you'd like to ask them over coffee. Thank you.
- J. _____ If we turn to studies made in the 1930s, it's interesting to note, as you can see in this slide, that they forecast* that the trend in the shorter working week would continue far beyond forty hours. This has not happened in the US, though in some European countries they were pushing for thirty-five hours at the end of the last century. Instead, in the US the total number of working hours has been going up since 1970 by an average of 163 hours per year. If the present trend continues, the average white collar American will be working over sixty hours per week by the year 2020.
- K. _____ I'll be looking at the situation at the beginning of the last century.

Task 3 – Listen to the presentation and check your answers. As you listen, add the transition words (e.g. next, secondly, after that) that have been left out of the script. Not all the blanks need to be filled. What would be a suitable title for this presentation? Does it have a coherent structure?

Template for a Job-search Cover Letter

Your name
Your address
Your city, state, postal code
Your phone number
Your email

Name (Mr./Ms. first name, last name of person you are writing to)
Title Organization
Address
City, state, postal code

Opening salutation: Dear Mr./Ms. Last Name,

Opening paragraph: State why you are writing; how you learned of the organization or position; and basic information about yourself.

Second paragraph: Explain why you are interested in the employer or type of work the employer does (simply stating that you are interested does not tell why and can sound like a form letter). Demonstrate that you know enough about the employer or position to relate your background to the employer or position. Mention specific qualifications which make you a good fit for the employer's needs. This is an opportunity to explain in more detail relevant items in your resume. Refer to the fact that your resume is enclosed. Mention other enclosures if such are required for the position.

Third paragraph: Indicate that you would like the opportunity to interview for a position or to talk with the employer to learn more about their opportunities or hiring plans. State what you will do to follow up, such as telephoning the employer within two weeks. If you will be in the employer's location and could offer to schedule a visit, indicate when. State that you would be glad to provide the employer with any additional information needed. Thank the employer for her/his consideration.

Closing salutation: Sincerely,

Your hand-written signature
Your full name typed Enclosure(s) referring to resume, references, etc.

Sample Body of Cover Letter for an Arts Position

Dear Mr./Ms. Last Name,

(Opening paragraph) The description you posted for a studio assistant parallels my interests and qualifications perfectly. With my background in art and psychology, I am confident that I would make a very successful and creative studio assistant.

(Second paragraph) Having worked for the non-profit organization County Arts, I have been exposed to a number of aspects of the art world. My experience as artist assistant at the Museum of Art demonstrates my capability of working with others through the creative process of production while meeting the challenges presented to me. Also, my education in psychology has allowed me to learn the nuances of people and has provided me with good investigative and analytical skills that will suit your needs for customer assistance.

(Third paragraph) I would appreciate the opportunity to make a substantial contribution by exploring the business of applied art through your design firm. I welcome the opportunity to meet with you to further discuss my candidacy and will call next week to see if we might arrange a time to speak. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Grammar – Past Simple vs. Present Perfect

What is the difference between these sentences?

Blanka has been a volunteer.

Blanka was a volunteer from September 1995 to February 1996.

What tense is used for a completed time period? What tense is used for an unfinished time period?

What tense is used for specific time periods? What tense is used for experiences with no specific time period?

Task 7 – Put these time expressions into two groups of either completed time or unfinished time periods.

this semester	in the summer	on Monday	this week
since Tuesday	two weeks ago	last month	at Easter

Now make sentences about yourself using these expressions.

Task 8 – Make these into questions. (Be careful to use the correct tense!)

- 1 Have / (ever) write / a work evaluation report?
Example: Have you ever written a work report?
- 2 When / write / your first CV (in English)?
- 3 Have / work / outdoors?
- 4 How / feel / at your first job interview?
- 5 Have / be / a volunteer?
- 6 Have / be selected / for a prestigious position?
- 7 Have / be / unemployed?
- 8 How many months / work / last summer?
- 9 Have / apply for / a job in a foreign country?
- 10 Have / think about / working freelance?

Ask your partner these questions. If the answer is yes, ask follow-up questions.

e.g. “Have you ever had to use English in your job?”
“Yes, I have.”
“What was the job? What types of situations did you encounter? How did you deal with them?”

Task 9 – Put the verb into the correct form (present perfect or past simple).

- 1 Do you know about Ann? She _____ her job. (give up)
- 2 My boss _____ me and now I am in charge of the whole department. (promote)
- 3 When Paul and Mark left school they _____ a job in a local travel agency. (apply for)
- 4 The job _____ doing quite a lot of paperwork, so I quit two weeks ago. (involve)
- 5 I _____ training workers last year, but this year I have to deal with team building. (be responsible for)
- 6 Do you know that he is unemployed? They _____ him. (sack)
- 7 Finally! They _____! What a great piece of news! (resign)
- 8 Meg _____ looking for a new job with a bigger company last week. (start)
- 9 They _____ enough of this shift work; they would like to have flexi-time. (have)
- 10 Pete and Steve _____ at work yesterday. I wonder why! (not be)
- 11 Sue _____ five different jobs in the past four years. (have)
- 12 It's the first time I _____ a notice. (hand in)
- 13 I never _____ a part-time job when I studied at university. (have)
