Course description:

This course consists of alternating lectures and seminars that encourage students to engage in literary research and analysis. The lectures provide students with an introduction to literary histories, movements, contexts and approaches to literary texts. The seminars function as more practical insights into analyzing literary texts and writing critical research papers about them. They are based on discussions and group work.

Course objectives:

1. To learn the methods of conducting library research and working with primary and secondary sources.
2. To acquire the techniques needed for literary analysis and writing academic essays.
3. To refine critical thinking about literature and achieve a deeper understanding of how literature affects us and how it enriches our perception of the world.

Assessment:

Students must prepare for all classes, especially for the seminars. The assigned texts must be read before the class so that students can engage actively in discussions and other continuous assessment. Written assignments must be submitted in the correct format and on time. Please submit all written work in .doc or .docx format. 1 credit (zápočet) is given at the end of the lecture series after taking an on-line test (students have to score at least 60 %); 5 credits (zkouška) for passing all seminar assignments. Final mark: class performance 20 %; Assignment 1 30 %; Assignment 2 50 %. The pass/fail line is 60 %. Note: students MUST pass all individual assignments; if they fail one or more of them, they have to rewrite and resubmit them until they get more than 60 %. Failing to submit assignments during the semester results in not being able to sit the exam (i.e., submit the final paper). Penalty for late submission will be 10 % per each calendar day. Evaluation scale: A 100-85 %; B 84-80 %; C 79-75 %; D 74-70 %; E 69-60 %; F (fail) 59-0 %.

Readings:

Primary: please see the syllabus—texts will be available in the ELF (poetry, short extracts), otherwise you have to get a copy from the library or a bookshop (novels).

Secondary: Barnett, Sylvan, et al. A Short Guide to Writing About Literature. 2nd ed. Toronto: Pearson Education, 2004 (ELF) and MLA Handbook, 8th edition (ELF).

Attendance: It is crucial that students attend both lectures and seminars. Attendance in ALL seminars is compulsory. In cases of illness, please present a doctor's certificate at the study department. Failing to attend the seminars may result in failing the course.
