Grammar

Modals and semi-modals

- The nine main modals (will, would, can, could, may, might, shall, should, must) have only one form (ie they do not change tense or person) and are followed by a simple or continuous bare infinitive (eg could + do, be doing, have done, have been doing). They can also be followed by a bare infinitive in the passive (eg could + be done, have been done).
- Semi-modals have similar meanings to modals. They include: need (to), ought to, had better and have (got) to.
- Some semi-modals, such as had better, do not change tense or person. Others, such as have (got) to, do.
- Some semi-modals can be used in combination with modals, producing phrases such as might have to.

- Can and could cannot be used as infinitives. We can use to be able to instead.

| A tabloid editor speaks |
|---|
| As editor of the most popular British tabloid, I need |
| (I) make sure we give our readers what |
| they want. And what do they want? Scandal. It is my job |
| to tell the readers when a celebrity has done something |
| they should not have (2), or when a |
| politician (3) to have done something |
| but didn't. One accusation that is often levelled at |
| tabloids is that we think we (4) not need |
| to worry about the truth, but that is just not true. I have |
| (5) be shown proof from at least two |
| sources before I run a story. As a newspaper, you have |
| (6) to get your facts right and you |
| (7) not print a story just because you |
| want it to be true. There are times when, in retrospect, |
| we (8) not have been so careful and |

| could have broken a story days before we did, but we |
|---|
| (9) to have absolute proof first. |
| I often get asked why so many celebrities sell their |
| stories to us. The truth is that we tell them we are going |
| to run a story about them anyway, so they realise they |
| might as (${f I}$ ${f 0}$) put their side of the story |
| across.They know they ($\boldsymbol{I}\boldsymbol{I}\boldsymbol{I}$) definitely |
| have to speak out at some point, so why wait? And, let's |
| face it, celebrities need to (${f l}$ ${f 2}$) talked |
| about constantly or they stop being famous, so they |
| (13) not complain, in my view. |
| What I would say to celebrities and politicians that do |
| criticise tabloids is that you (14) not fear |
| us if you haven't done anything wrong. But if you have, |
| you (15) better look out, because we are |
| going to catch you. |
