

PRACTICAL PH&PH 3:

The best videos for teaching English (pronunciation, general language, culture) at all levels

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

Having made all the possible mistakes there are to make, I'm in a position to provide these...

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Choice of recording: - must offer benefits on a short space, - must be enjoyed (if not understood) by all those present, - need not be tailored to all participants' proficiency levels
- Presentation as tidbit, reward
- Timing and frequency
- Preparation for a recording
- Follow-up activities
- Encouraging students' autonomy >>> formats on next slide & computer games

SUGGESTED FORMATS

- Sitcoms
- Movies (cultural references; accents carry regional, social, ethnic connotations; the issue of subtitles)
- English-teaching videos featuring mother tongue x all in English
- Audiobooks
- Educational videos; TED Talks; “Accent Tag”; Tutorials
- Talk shows, interviews with celebrities
- Stand-up comedy, parody
- Political discourse, motivational talks
