

Odd.: Cyanophyta Třída: Cyanophyceae Řád: Chroococcales

Microcystis aeruginosa

© orig. Uher B.

Microcystis aeruginosa

A microscopic image showing numerous spherical colonies of Microcystis aeruginosa. The colonies are arranged in a large, irregular, branching structure that fills most of the frame. Each colony is composed of many small, individual cells. The cells have a distinct, multi-layered appearance with a darker outer shell and a lighter, granular interior. The overall color of the colonies is a brownish-green. The background is a light, uniform grey.

Microcystis aeruginosa