

Give the proper forms of past tense or past participle:

drink (infinitive) - drank (past tense) - drunk (past participle)

search - searched - searched

1. 70 (wound) people were taken to hospital after the accident.
2. The huge waves swallowed the small boat and it (sink) shortly thereafter.
3. Programmers are (seek) after.
4. (grind) glass is used as an abrasive.
5. Since lead means "olovo", past tense of lead is
6. Water (flow) into the cave.
7. The Cubans commandeered the plane and(fly) it to Miami.
8. In the old days, doctors routinely (bleed) patients as part of the treatment.
9. The hikers finally (strike) the main path to the lake. (= attained, reached)
She (strike) a goldmine.
10. He (stick) a needle into his finger.
11. This (weave) cloth originated in Mesopotamia.
12. He (hang) his head hopelessly.
13. She (lie) sleepless all night.
14. Woolen sweater gets (shrink) if you wash it in hot water.
15. All her things were (lay) into one big box.

Remember: She was ...ing (lie) in bed to get some relief.

Complete the sentences with one of the verbs from the clue.

Burst cast held lent raised rose run shed slid stuck

1. Do you really hope you will ever get the money you have him?
2. The conference will be in our faculty.
3. She on the icy sidewalk.
4. The dam and flooded the whole valley.
5. The sculpture was in bronze.
6. Tourists flocked to the shrine where the statue was said to have tears.
7. The label was to the box.
8. We have out of petrol.
9. The sun at 5:30 a.m.
10. They enough money to build a new center for research.