

79

Figure 2-15. These landforms in Monument Valley, Arizona, are made of sandstone. What class of rock does sandstone belong to?

Figure 2-16, These layers of schist were photographed at King's Canyon National Park. What could have caused the bending and folding of the rock layers?

Figure 2-19. Specimens of eight rocks: Considered as four pairs, each rock on the right is a metamorphic form of the rock on its left.

A – granite

B – gneiss

C – sandstone

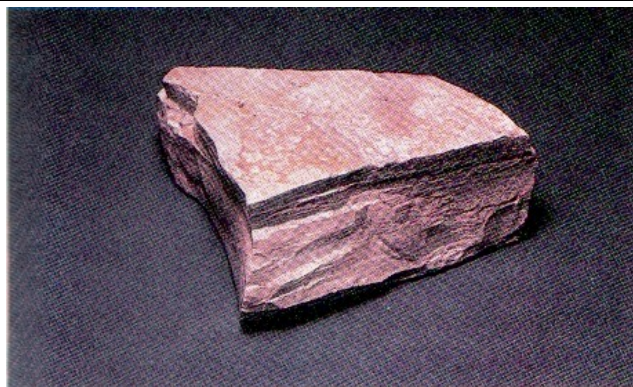

D – quartzite

E – limestone

F – marble

G – shale

H – schist