

Answer the questions with might and the words in brackets.

- Why is John wearing sunglasses? It's not sunny.
(have some problem with his eyes) He might have some problem with his eyes.
- Why didn't Jane come to the party with her boyfriend last night?
(have a row) They might have had a row.
- Why is Alan in such a bad mood today?
(sleep badly last night)
- Why is Anna looking under the desk?
(drop something)
- I can't remember where I put my bag.
(be under the bed)
- Why hasn't anybody said 'Happy Birthday' to me?
(plan a surprise)
- Why does Henry look so miserable?
(have some bad news)
- Why isn't Sophie in the office today?
(work at home)
- Why didn't Rosemary come to the cinema last night?
(feel tired)

Use might to complete the sentences which explain why you should follow this advice.

- You should reserve a seat on the train when you travel on public holidays.
If you don't, you might have to stand up for the whole journey.
- You'd better not carry that heavy suitcase.
If you do, you might injure your back.
- You should carry a map when you visit London.
If you don't,
- You should check the timetable before you leave for the station.
If you don't,
- You ought not to eat too many cream cakes.
If you do,
- You'd better have an early night.
If you don't,
- You should have your car serviced regularly.
If you don't,
- You shouldn't go to a party the night before your exam.
If you do,
- You ought to arrive punctually for work.
If you don't,
- You should eat plenty of fresh fruit and vegetables.
If you don't,

69

Match the beginning of each sentence with the most suitable ending.

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1 You must have met some fascinating people | a after all your hard work. | 1 d |
| 2 You must know Tokyo is expensive | b after touring the world for years. | 2 |
| 3 You can't have lived in Tunisia for ten years | c if you've lived there. | 3 |
| 4 You can't be tired | d during your trip to Africa. | 4 |
| 5 You must be exhausted | e when you've just had a holiday. | 5 |
| 6 You may find it difficult to settle down | f without learning some Arabic. | 6 |
| 7 You couldn't have gone on holiday | g to the airport tomorrow. | 7 |
| 8 You might think about going to Spain | h because you had a broken leg. | 8 |
| 9 You could take a taxi | i for your next holiday. | 9 |

70

Complete the email with the words from the box.

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------|-------------------|
| may be seeing | may not have done | could have fallen |
| may have left | couldn't have left | may be visiting |
| could be coming | may have found | |

From: Robin Nicholas
To: Helena Shakespeare
Subject: Seeing you again

Helena

It was good to see you last week and to get your email yesterday.

Sorry to hear you lost your rap CD on the journey home. I've looked for it, but it definitely isn't in our car. I think you (1) may have left it on the train. Why not phone the lost property office? It (2) down the side of your seat. Someone (3) it and handed it in. Of course, if they like rap music, they (4) ! Anyway, as far as I remember, you (5) it here, because you were listening to it on the way to the station.

And now my news. Guess what? I (6) to your part of the world next month! There is a conference in your town which my boss wanted to attend, but now he's heard that some important clients (7) our office at that time.

So, we (8) each other sooner than we expected. Let's hope so. Of course it's not settled yet. I'll email as soon as I know for certain.

See you,
Robin