

Dear Manci,

Thanks for your 8th letter, which I received yesterday. It was a nice cheerful letter. You say I do not answer all your questions. I have read again your more recent letters and I give here the answers to the questions that I have not answered before.

Letter number

question

5 How do you seem Mancieta's Enlay?

5 What makes me (Manci) so sad?

5 Whom else could I love?

5 Don't you look a clear little fellow?

5 You seem that I would like to see you very much?

6 Are you "Dear Daria"?

6 Do you know how I feel like?

6 Were there any feelings for me?

6 Why should I miss your letters?

answer

No.

You have not enough interests

You should not expect me to answer this question. You would say I was small if I tried.

Yes certainly, I expect so.

Yes, but I cannot help it.

Sometimes.

Not very well. You change so quickly

Yes, some.

Because I have been writing so (to?) often
