

Determination of parameters from urine

The following urine parameters were determined using diagnostic strips:

....

Result:

the urine sample was negative in the following parameters:

the urine sample was positive in the following parameters: